ON MAN AND BEAST.

To the Inhabitants of Philadelphia and Vicinity

I propose to cure, almost instantaneously, individuals afflicted with Deafness, Headache, Neuralgia (III) Hever, Ague. Rheumatian, and all Sores and Pains.

Chill Fever, Ague. Bheumatian, and all force and Pains.

I propose to check and effectually dissipate more ache and pain, and to accomplish nearer and more perfect equilibrium of all the circulating fluids in the human system, than can be effected by any other, or all other, neathods of medical aid in the same space, of the complex of the masses themselves being judges.

I do not propose to cure event disease, but all such as are curable by any combination of medical appliances. My Electric Oil operates on chemical and electric principles, and is, therefore, applicable to the cure or natural restoration of any organic derangerment, arising from an improper circulation of Nervovital fluid.

I want the masses to join in this matter—the well as the sick—became if these things are so, all are vital fluid.

I want the masses to join in this matter—the well as the sick—because if these things are so, all are alike interested.

"Our Ericsson." The "DAILY PRESS" is continually in reception of letters from Northern, Western, Southern, and some Eastern States, making inquiries relative to our GREAT ERICSSON. Over one hundred letters are thus answered :

We employ only the complement of hands necessary for the press. Nominally "the engine takes care of itself!" The saving to our pocket of "Caloric" over steam is three dollars per day. We believe the day is fast approaching when locomotives on our railroads, boats on our rivers, will be propelled by "Ericsson's Caloric Engines." What a blessing to the world! No more explosions!!

A MAN ALMOST SEVERS HIS HEAD FROM HIS BODY-SINGULAR HALLUCINATION AND SUICIDE. Coroner Carey was called upon Wedneday to hold an inquest upon the body of a man named Alfred Hoad, who committed self-destruction by cutting his throat, at the Lick Run Lunatic Asylum, night before last. The evidence before the jury elicited the following facts.

For some time back, indeed ever since the death of Philip Barton Key, he had been laboring under the hallucination that some man-with whose wife he had been on such terms of intimacy as are not recognized as altogether proper by that supreme ruler of ish him as the destroyer of his peace by burning him to death.

During the progress of the Sickles trial, and until its close, he became still more and more diseased in mind, and about a week ago became an inmate of the Asylum, from which his soul departed to its abode among the dim shadows of Land To Be.

On the afternoon of Tuesday he was much worse than at any previous time, and from his action seemed to suffer as if he were already enveloped in flames, and declared he would die by his own hand, before he would be burned to death. The image of the wronged husband was ever before him, and in the white arms of the faithless wife he was over imprisoned; the terrible curses and threats of the former sounded continually in his ears, and the rosy kisses of the latter were always upon his lips, until, at length, his love of life yielded to the Imagination-nurtured demon that so disturbed his peace, and about six o'clock in the evening of the day we have named, he by some means became in possession of a razor, and in his desperation, cut his head almost off

The deceased was about thirty-eight years of age, and little was known of him save what had been made known as the effect of the singular imagining which haunted him at every step. The verdict of the jury was in accordance with the above.

ASSAULT WITH INTENT TO KILL .-- A man named J. B. McClyme while passing a house in Deercreek Valley a day or two ago, heard a noise and screams, and upon examination found the occupant, John Berger, engaged in the very elegant amusement of beating his wife. He was prompted to interfere, but, as is always the case, they both fell upon him, and yesterday he had a warrant issued for the arrest of Berger, who, being brought before Justice Hanselman, was held to bail in the sum of $500 for his appearance at Court to answer a charge of assault with intent to kill.

I. O. or O. F .- The Grand Encampment which met in annual session, at Dayton, on Tuesday, elected the following officers for the coming year, viz: C. F. Wilstach, of this city, R. W. Grand Patriarch; Rev. Samuel Marks, of Huron, M. E. Grand High Priest; Theodore Clapp, of Fremont, R. W. Grand Warden; Wm. M. Hubbel, of this city, R. W. Grand Scribe: Geo. D. Winchel, of this city, R. W. Grand Treasurer; Benj. C. True, of this city, R. W. Grand Representative to the G. L. of U. S.

The session was well attended, and charters for some new encampments were granted.

DANIEL LAVERY, Esq., who, for several nonths has been living a retired life, in consequence of a severe mental affliction, is again at his post entirely recovered from his late malady. He says he has not the slightest fear of a relapse, as he now knows the cause of his illness, and will guard against it in the future.

THE City Auditor requested us to say that a large number of orders, passed by the School Board, to teachers and others, remain unpaid, and he hopes all who hold such will call as early as possible and receive their money.

ANOTHER ELOPEMENT PROM KENTUCKY-TENDRE CUPID LAUGHS AT A STERN PARA .- A young man, in company with one of the loveliest of the dark-eyed daughters of Kentucky, a few days ago, made his appearance at the Spencer House in great haste, and told the proprietor a story somewhat like the fol-

Some time ago, when both of them were ners children, the first meeting of their glances gave birth to a Cupid which grew stronger and stronger as they increased in years, and gave to both a joy they could find in nothing else. Like every other son of Sympathy and Sentiment, he hated Hymen and his galling chain, and said that Tenderness could never exist in the atmosphere breathed by his enemy.

Thus they lived until the budding girl bloomed into womanhood, and found so much pleasure in the society of each other that they wished for nothing more. But her father thought that she must wed, and awoke the lovers from their rosy dreams by the announcement that he wished her to marry a wealthy but inelegant bachelor, who was his particular friend. The girl refused, and the parent insisted, until the little Love, who for so long a time had shot his arrows from the eyes of each, came to their aid; and devised a plan by which they might escape.

The young man left his home ostensibly to go into business in Tennessee, but kept constantly posted in regard to what was going on at home, by the aid of a negro who belonged to his inamorata. Although the absence of the lover made matters, to a certain extent, quiet, It soon becomes evident they could never alter the determination of the father, and they were thus driven into an elopement, and, of course, marriage. The negro took his mistress to a station, where the lover awaited her arrival, and they got on board the cars just in time to escape the father, who brandished his cane and swore to disinherit the disobedient girl.

Mine host of the Spencer, who is accommo dating in every respect, and especially kind in cases of this nature assisted them to a minister, and they repaid him, he said, a thousand times with their thanks. These natures, are congenial, and we have no reason to believe they will ever regret the union into which they were thus strangely brought. May their Cupid give them, in their new state, all the happiness he did in the old, and ambushed in her dimples may he console himself by laughing at the father, for the alliance he has been forced to make with Hymen.

WIFE BEATING .- A man named David Burgess, who resides in an alley between Seventh and Eighth streets and Sycamore and Main, went home Wednesday night very drunk, and segan to abuse his children, one of whom he almost choked to death. His wife interfered to prevent, as she supposed, the father from murdering her child, whom he fell upon and beat very severely. Although the woman has not yet entirely recovered, she will not consent that a warrant shall be issued for his proletarian minds, Society-was about to pun- arrest. It is certainly time he had learned to appreciate fully the character of such a woman and to treat her at least, kindly, if not affec-

MAN FOUND WITH HIS THROAT CUT .-- A man, whose name from a letter found on his person is supposed to be Kilian, was found on the farm of Joseph Roessler, in Butler County, near Hamilton, Wednesday, with his throat literally cut from ear to ear. A note for $60, drawn by Adam Bauer in his favor, was also found in his pocket. It is thought that he had recently left Cleveland; but as he was not known in the neighborhood, nothing definite could be learned further than we have stated. either of him or the manner of his death.

MICHAEL STICKER, a German who resides a No. 620 Main street, and was in the employ of Evans & Co., machinists, on the corner of Columbia and Eim street, had his left leg and arm broken, his left thigh dislocated, and his head severely bruised on Wednesday, having been caught by a belt and thrown under one of the shafts in that establishment. His wounds are painful though not dangerous.

JOHN J. McFall has announced the fac that he is a Justice of the Peace in four lanlanguages-English, German, Italian and Hebrew. He is evidently enterprising, and no doubt intends to dispense justice to all nations: but it seems somewhat odd, to those who know him, to read, in large yellow letters-"Giovanni J. McFall, Gudice de Pace."

UNITED STATES COURTS .- A man named Henry Smith has been summoned to appear before the United States Circuit Court to answer a charge of contempt preferred against him for taking possession of certain personal property attached by the United States Marshal in the case of Alfred Wintermute versus Warner W. Mills.

Another of the famous "short weight" suits against Eggleston & Nye, produce merchants, on the Miami Canal, came up before Justice Bell. Judgment was rendered against the defendants, and the case appealed. The plaintiffs in the case are Ward & Custis, of Clinton Ohio. The amount claimed is $104 91,

We give elsewhere this morning an intereating description of monumental marble work, to be seen at Mr. Bolles' factory ou Vine, just above Sixth. Ladies and gentle men would be entertained by looking through his establishment.

THE late forgery case, in which a prominent Main street merchant is implicated, is not so completely "hushed up" as his friends may wish. A day or two will develope the full particulars.

Oxe of our city editors has had his hair cut so close that his head resembles that of Jocko, the Brazilian ape, in the Martinetti's pantomime. We learn he intends soon to have his head sand-papered and varnished.
